

Judge John C. Coughenour

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Plaintiff
v.
KENNETH JOHN RHULE, Defendant.

NO. CR 20-105 JCC

UNITED STATES’ MOTION TO SEAL

Noting Date: December 30, 2020

The United States of America, by and through Brian T. Moran, United States Attorney for the Western District of Washington, and Marie M. Dalton, Assistant United States Attorney for said District, files this motion respectfully requesting that the United States’ Response in Opposition to Defendant’s Motion to Reopen Detention Hearing and supporting exhibits in the above-captioned matter, be filed under seal and be allowed to remain under seal.

The United States’ opposition describes the Defendant’s medical condition and attaches his medical records as an exhibit. In addition, the tables contained in the opposition list the Defendant’s telephone number, address, and other personally identifiable information. Because the Defendant contends that certain Internet Protocol (“IP”) addresses were exclusively accessed by his son, the United States was required to include this personally identifiable information in its motion—in order to distinguish
